

CIFA invites its members to an Informative Webinar.

The shortfall of Tax Treaties: what is the gameplan?

Germaine Rekwest

University of Curaçao
Tax Law researcher

Tax treaties are known to prevent or at least relieve double taxation in order to promote cross-border trade and investment. Despite several negotiations in the last decade, Curaçao has not been able to expand its tax treaty network. This webinar explores the opportunities for Curaçao to expand its tax treaty network by sharing the key factors for concluding tax treaties.

Prof. dr. Peter Kavelaars

Erasmus University Rotterdam
& Council at Deloitte.

Join Germaine Rekwest LL.M en Prof. Peter Kavelaars for a digital session to discuss their views on how to best expand Curaçao's treaty network. They will discuss the key elements in the negotiaton process and actual topics in tax treaties. The programme will include a question and answer session so we can delve deeper into the topic.
