

Uitnodiging Juridisch Platform 14 juli 2022:

Het nieuwe LGO-Besluit en Fair Taxation

(Voertaal is Nederlands)

Gastspreekers:

Mrs. mr. Germaine Rekwest

Germaine Rekwest is a researcher and lecturer in tax law at the University of Curaçao. Rekwest is currently doing her PhD at Erasmus University Rotterdam (Prof. P. Kavelaars) and Leiden University (Prof. I. Mosquera). She is also the academic leader of the Jean Monnet Module 'European integration in the Caribbean Region' (EUinCARIB).

The role of Small Island Developing States in the formation of 'Fair taxation' as customary law

In the context of the worldwide fight against worldwide tax competition, the standard of 'Fair taxation' has been introduced. The central question in this lecture is whether the implementation of Fair taxation by the Small Island Developing States (SIDS) contributes to the formation of Fair taxation in an international customary law. If the answer is yes, then the next question is what role the SIDS can play in this formation.

Prof. dr. Flora Goudappel

Flora Goudappel is professor of European law and dean of the Faculty of Law at the University of Curaçao. She is specialized in the relation of the overseas countries and territories to the European Union. She has taught and spoken at conferences in many countries.

Developments in EU-OCT relations for St. Maarten

Worth €500 million, the Decision on the Overseas Association is the new instrument underpinning the political/institutional, trade and financial cooperation framework for the EU-OCT partnership for 2021-27. The new Decision on the Overseas Association unifies the rules for the partnership with all Overseas Countries and territories (OCTs) and includes specific provisions guiding the partnership with Greenland.
